

BOARDERS ENLISTED IN FOOD CAMPAIGN

Pledge Card to Co-operate With Proprietors Issued by Administration

Inhabitants of boarding houses in Philadelphia are the latest to be enlisted in Jay Cooke, food administrator for this county, in the food conservation campaign.

A "boarders' pledge card" has been issued by the food administration, signing up those who eat in boarding houses to help win the war by economic use of foods.

The card reads as follows:

"I _____, at present a boarder in this city, hereby accept membership in the United States food administration, pledging myself, as a patriotic duty, to co-operate with the proprietors in the conservation of meat, wheat, sugar and fats according to the directions of the food administration."

J. S. Crutchfield, attached to the Philadelphia food administration, returned to Philadelphia today from Washington, where he had gone to confer on the permit given to Swift & Co. to place a large quantity of cold-storage chickens on the market.

PERMIT IS RESCINDED

Mr. Crutchfield brought the word that the permit had been rescinded, as it is not in accord with the Pennsylvania cold storage laws. He said that while the chickens are in good condition for consumption, food administrators have decided not to interfere with State laws. The chickens had been in cold storage for more than a year.

Great satisfaction is felt in Washington, Crutchfield said, over the amount of meat that has been conserved. He said that the supply is now very good. It is intimated that meatless days will be further reduced if present conditions continue.

Mr. Cooke this morning began a personal survey of retail markets of the city. He started today on the market at Second and South streets and the adjacent stores. Great disparity in prices charged were found by Mr. Cooke. In one instance a dealer was selling pens for twenty-five cents a dozen. A short distance away another man was selling the same quantity and quality for seventy-five cents. The second man, according to Mr. Cooke, was making a fair profit. The men selling at higher rates will be visited by Mr. Cooke, who has declared his intention of wiping out profiteering.

FINDS BREATH IN GARBAGE

A pathetic scene was enacted this morning by an old woman who appeared in the food administration's office with a large bundle under her arm. She explained that she had made a round of large number of garbage cans in the city, and, after a great search, was selling the same quantity and quality for seventy-five cents. The second man, according to Mr. Cooke, was making a fair profit. The men selling at higher rates will be visited by Mr. Cooke, who has declared his intention of wiping out profiteering.

Services Board Adjusts Company's Differences With Seedmen

Intervention by the Public Service Commission has settled the difficulties between the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company and the Henry F. Mitchell Company, resulting from failure of the latter company to furnish seeds and garden implements for the seed house.

The Mitchell Company complained to the Public Service Commission that the transit company had not paid the bill and had failed to answer a letter sent to President Mitten on the matter. The transit company replied that it is always prompt in payment of its bills, and that payment of these have had to be demanded by the transit company.

Justice Department Wants to Rush Draft Dodgers to Army

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The Department of Justice today recommended that Provost Marshal General Charles E. Keeler, who is in charge of the Selective Service Commission, issue an immediate order to arrest all men arrested recently in the Pittsburgh district.

Charges of from fifteen to eighteen cents a pound for matzoth, which is being asked here, have been declared to be unreasonable, in a statement issued by the food administration. The maximum retail price for the Jewish ritual bread should not be greater than thirteen or fourteen cents a pounds, it was said.

Various complaints have come to the attention of the administration officials at the War Department. The men go from house to house, ask the amount of flour held, and demand that any surplus be turned over to them.

Members of the Pennsylvania Retail Grocers' Association will hold a mass meeting Sunday afternoon to discuss food administration regulations and prepare to press the campaign to conserve wheat and other foodstuffs. The meeting will be held at Seventh and Wolf streets.

In view of the "potatoe" campaign, reports have come to Mr. Cooke of profiteering in this commodity. Complaints are being investigated, and, if sustained, wholesalers will be ordered to cut off supplies to the dealers who are gouging the public. Similar action will be taken in all cases of profiteering.
